

Asalam Alukom, I love science and learning and all scientific disciplines. Learning develops my personal abilities and educates me in general. I love to travel and tourism because it's one of my hobbies, Hospitality management. One of the customs of Arabs is generosity and hospitality for guests and visitors. Now my country has a vision to be one of the first ten countries around the world and a source of income for it and to achieve the vision of the Kingdom Saudi Arabia 2030. And my dream is to become the owner and manager of a Hotel with unique features. The reason for my drop out of study is my future formation and the future of my wife. Now I am ready to study. I chose CU COVENTRY University. Professional CTH slogan and make our education the advanced tourism industry and focus on the professional life I need to make HANI Hotel, this is what my country need, and I am fully prepared, challenged and fun in the good learning I need. I hope you will accept me in your university which I am proud of in front of the world.

I would like to study English for a whole year so that I can succeed with an excellent score in the most luxurious university around the world and have fun learning with you.
