Professional Units

Units with a prefix of 'P' in the unit code are units taken for professional purposes and have non-standard structures and non-standard pass marks, as set by an external accrediting body.

Pass/Fail Units

Pass/Fail Units will be identified by the suffix of * against the unit code. Where 'Pass' is indicated under "Mark" or "Grade" the student is deemed to have met the learning outcomes of the unit, therefore no percentage mark or grade is awarded.

Decisions

Pass	has met learning outcomes of unit
Passed after Second Attempt	did not pass the unit at the first attempt but has passed after submission of a second attempt
Passed after Repeat Assessment	did not pass the unit at the first attempt but has passed after repeating the unit
Compensated Pass	did not meet the learning outcomes through assessment but judged to have met the standard of the award due to strength of overall performance

APEL units

No mark/grade or decision is displayed for units marked as "APEL". APEL means that the student has met the necessary learning outcomes as a result of previous study or relevant experience.

Credits

ECTS The European Credit Transfer System compares credit values for students studying at institutions in other EU countries

Additional units

Units that have been passed but are not included in the award calculation are listed separately on the transcript and are not included in the Credits gained for award total but will show in the Total Credits Gained.
