

Statement of Purpose:

My name is Raed Ibrahim Alwehaibi I am 26 years old and I was born, raised, and educated in Riyadh Saudi Arabia. My personal interests cover a number of sports such as soccer, swimming, and running. For that, I have always been involved in related activities. I like to socialize with others and get to know people from other cultures to enrich my experience and improve my relationships with people around me.

I studied at King Saud University and graduated in May 2018 with "Very Good' Grade. I was very passionate about the field of accounting, and I have completed several projects that are accounting related during my at the university. Further, I have always wanted to complete my educational journey in the United States of America, which has many internationally-ranked universities; in addition to the model of educational, which helps to empower student and achieve the stage of creativity in any given field.

After graduating from the university with a bachelor degree in accounting, I started working as a Budget Officer at the Royal Saudi Air Force. This has enabled me to work closely with a number of decisions making personal. Further, currently the kingdom of Saudi Arabia is undergoing major reforms to move away from relaying on oil. This will definitely bring its challenges to the people driving these reforms. Further, now the country is opening to tourism. And this will allow people from all over the world to visit Saudi.

Therefore, given the excellent facilities, highly qualified professors and staff, and the highly diversified group of student, your university would be the right place for pursuing a graduate study in accounting.
