To Whom It May Concern

This is to inform you that, Mr. Rakan Raad Alsharif was one of my students on Bachelor of Accounting Program at Umm Al-Qura University, for Advanced Financial Accounting and Business Mathematics Courses in summer semester, 2017.

Overall Rakan received a very good marks in this courses. He is a hard-working student that always commits to his study schedule including his consistency in preparing and finalizing his assignment and other educational assessments on time.

Mr. Rakan has a good ability in research in accounting particularly for finding, reading, and summarizing each week seminar topic required by the subject. He has good analytical skills in dealing with a complex case that may include calculation and analytical problem as required by case study assignment of the subject.

I believe that Mr. Rakan has the ability to make an excellent research on his postgraduate study. He has my best wishes on his future.

If you have any inquiries regarding this letter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours Sincerely,

Dr. Mohammed Naif Alshareef
