2. THE AWARD

Name of the award:

Bachelor of Business Administration

Detail:

This undergraduate degree is taught in English and normally takes three years of full-time study or the equivalent part-time study. Admission requirements and course rules are available on the University website at www.canberra.edu.au.

Features:

This course is a creative and flexible program of study in commerce and business.

Pathway to further study:

Graduates with a bachelor degree have access to a range of graduate programs including graduate certificates, graduate diplomas and, in some fields, master degrees. Undergraduate honours programs may be available to outstanding students who wish to extend their research expertise and/or seek entry into a Higher Degree. Further details are available on the University website at www.canberra.edu.au.

3. AWARDING INSTITUTION

The University of Canberra is a comprehensive public university. The institution was established by the Commonwealth Government in 1967 as the Canberra College of Advanced Education, under the Canberra College of Advanced Education Act 1967 (Cth). The College became the University of Canberra with effect from 1 January 1990. Jurisdiction for the University was passed to the Australian Capital Territory on 1 December 1997, and is governed under the University of Canberra Act 1989. Further details are available on the University website at www.canberra.edu.au.

The Australian Higher Education Graduation Statement is provided by Australian higher education institutions to graduating students on completion of the requirements for a particular higher education award. It provides a description of the nature, level, context and status of studies that were pursued by the individual named. Its purpose is to assist in both national and international recognition of Australian qualifications and to promote international mobility and professional recognition of graduates.
