3. AWARDING INSTITUTION

The University of Canberra is a comprehensive public university. The institution was established by the Commonwealth Government in 1967 as the Canberra College of Advanced Education, under the Canberra College of Advanced Education Act 1967 (Cth). The College became the University of Canberra with effect from 1 January 1990. Jurisdiction for the University was passed to the Australian Capital Territory on 1 December 1997, and is governed under the University of Canberra Act 1989. Further details are available on the University website at www.canberra.edu.au.

The Australian Higher Education Graduation Statement is provided by Australian higher education institutions to graduating students on completion of the requirements for a particular higher education award. It provides a description of the nature, level, context and status of studies that were pursued by the individual named. Its purpose is to assist in both national and international recognition of Australian qualifications and to promote international mobility and professional recognition of graduates.

5. DESCRIPTION OF THE AUSTRALIAN HIGHER EDUCATION SYSTEM

Introduction

The Australian higher education system consists of independent, self-governing public and private universities and higher education institutions that award higher education qualifications. All higher education providers must be listed on the Australian Qualifications Framework Register of Recognised Education Institutions and Authorised Accreditation Authorities in Australia. This register is developed under instructions from Commonwealth, State and Territory Education and Training Ministers (See: <http://www.aqf.edu.au/register.htm>).
