

SULTAN MOHAMMED ALSHALAWI

CONTACT

☎ 0557556357

✉ alshalas@outlook.com

OBJECTIVE

Highly skilled and motivated Engineering student with extensive hands-on technical skills seeking an entry-level position within the aerospace industry.

SKILLS

- MS OFFICE
- ORGANIZE
- LEADERSHIP
- PUBLIC SPEAKING
- CREATIVELY
- MANAGEMENT
- PROBLEM-SOLVING
- TEAMWORK

EDUCATION

Science in Aeronautics
Embry-Riddle Aeronautical
University
2013 – 2016

EXPERIENCE

SAUDI AIR NATIONAL GUARD

Flight Operation

May 2018 – Aug 2019

- Designed a written program to implement automated external defibrillators, working with state and local regulations and liability
- Prepared hazard analyses, including job hazard analyses, preliminary hazard analyses, transportation
- Plan hazard analyses, and safety assessment reports by identifying hazards, assigning risk assessment codes to each, and determining an appropriate corrective course of action in order to mitigate hazards
- Conducted investigations of aircraft accidents and incidents involving general aviation aircraft
- Accident investigation - performed a full-scale mock accident investigation that involved interviewing witnesses and first responders and reviewing documentation and maintenance records to determine probable cause; wrote resulting recommendations and presented findings to a panel.

GENERAL AUTHORITY FOR CIVIL AVIATION

OPERATION SPECIALIST

Sep 2019 – Present

- Perform day to day operation activities and to make sure to implement the procedures in aerodrome manual and SOP.
- Review and develop the ADM and SOP manuals according to the regulations.
- Perform day to day inspections on the airside and terminals.

OBJECTIVE

1. GACA Future Leader Program
2. Safety Management System
3. OSHA