To Whom It May Concern:

Mr Fahad Saleh O Almegren is a previous student of mine who successfully passed the course Financial Markets and Portfolio Management. He was always an attentive student and contributed to class discussions and offered his knowledge to his fellow students.

I am confident that Mr Fahad Saleh O Almegren will welcome the opportunity to continue his graduate study that you offer and will ensure successful completion of all expectation set forth by that opportunity. He will bring to any program, not only maturity and interpersonal skills but also will make any environment richer with his passion for success, enthusiasm and academic knowledge.

Finally, I think that Mr Fahad Saleh O Almegren embodies the qualities I consider for a successful student: thirst for knowledge, creativity, appreciation for theory and methods and intellect. That's why I strongly recommend him for admission in your institution to peruse a graduate program.
