To whom it may concern:

I was delighted to hear that Mr. Faisal Alrashdi, one of my former students, was interested in continuing his education. I am honored to write this letter of recommendation to help him reach his goal. I have been fortunate to have Mr. Alrashdi as a student in my Introduction to Criminal Justice class. He was professional, and respectful, provided quality academic work, always met deadlines, and continually requested guidance to improve in areas that were not up to his high expectations. He had positive interactions with his peers and challenged them in their academic journey as well. He is self-motivated, so much so that he was always the first student to arrive in class every day. He has a passion for the criminal justice field and continues striving for success in all he does.

I have had the pleasure of watching Mr. Alrashdi grow as a person over the past few years. I am most impressed with his dedication to succeed. As an international student with English as a second language, he has had more challenges than most of his American peers. It seems like he has done so with ease. I was most impressed to learn that he had become the President of the Saudi Arabian student organization on campus and that he volunteered his time to coach soccer at the local elementary school. Faisal is kind, approachable, and always has a smile on his face. Though it has been a couple of years since I have had him in class, he still reaches out from time to time to say hello.

I do not doubt that Mr. Alrashdi will do well in graduate school. I give him my highest recommendation, and I'm excited to see him take this next step in his educational journey. If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me at (330) 464-7977.

Sincerely,

Dr. Lacy Ellis
