Conditions of Offer

Meet the University's 'Standard' English language requirement (this is equivalent to an overall IELTS 6.0 with at least 5.5 in each component) in an English proficiency test or other English qualification we recognise, as stated on our website: www.sussex.ac.uk/study/english-language-postgraduate. Pre-sessional English courses are also available at the University all year round. Satisfactory completion of these courses is accepted in place of an external English language test. Please see: www.sussex.ac.uk/languages/english/presess.

Please arrange for your official English language results to be uploaded as soon as they are available to your postgraduate application account.

Fees and Funding

We are pleased to inform you that you will be receiving the Business School's International Masters Award. This is a £2,000 award towards your tuition fees at the University of Sussex, which will be awarded to you as a fee waiver when you register onto a Masters course in September 2023.

You have been assessed as Overseas for fee purposes. This means you will be charged our International tuition fees. The tuition fees shown above are for the academic year 2023/24. For students admitted in September 2023 on courses lasting more than one year, these fees are set to increase each year over the duration of the degree by 3% each year (subject to rounding for administrative purposes and assuming you do not have a break in your studies). Please be aware that tuition fees vary depending on the degree course; if you are considering changing course please check the Fees section in the course description at www.sussex.ac.uk/study/masters.

In addition to tuition fees, you'll need sufficient funds to cover living expenses, including costs associated with your course. Information about additional costs can be found in the Fees section for your degree at www.sussex.ac.uk/study/masters.

If you require a Student visa to study at Sussex you will need to pay a deposit of £2,000 towards your tuition fees before we can issue a Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS). For further information please see: www.sussex.ac.uk/deposits.

The University offers a range of generous scholarships for Masters students. For more details about fees, funding and scholarships see: www.sussex.ac.uk/study/money.

Housing

If you accept our offer you're guaranteed a place in University-managed accommodation provided we receive a completed housing application by 1 August. Your agent/representative will be able to apply for housing online on your behalf from February. For details about accommodation please see: www.sussex.ac.uk/study/accommodation.

Support for Disabilities and Learning Differences

The University has a team of specialist advisors who work with students who require support due to their disability, ongoing medical condition, ongoing mental health condition, Autism Spectrum Conditions and specific learning differences (e.g. Dyslexia, Dyspraxia, AD(H)D). If you are a student with one or more of these long term conditions, you can directly contact us for advice and information. We may be able to arrange reasonable adjustments to support you while you are at university. You can find out more at: www.sussex.ac.uk/disability or email disabilitysupport@sussex.ac.uk.

Terms and Conditions

In accepting our offer, you would also be accepting the University's terms and conditions which can be viewed online at: www.sussex.ac.uk/termsandconditions. You're advised to read these before accepting our offer. Once you've accepted this offer, you have a right to cancel within 14 days if you change your mind. There's a cancellation form on our terms and conditions webpage.

Criminal Convictions Declaration

To enable the University to discharge its safeguarding obligations to all members of our community, the registration process when you join Sussex is subject to a satisfactory criminal convictions disclosure. As part of registration, we ask all new students to declare whether they have a relevant, unspent conviction. You'll find full details about this at: www.sussex.ac.uk/criminal-convictions but if you would need to answer 'yes' to this question, you must contact us immediately (and certainly before accepting your offer) so our Criminal Convictions Panel can evaluate your case.

Complaints

Although we hope you'll have a good experience in applying to Sussex, we recognise that there can be occasions when you have concerns about an aspect of the admissions process. Our complaints procedure can be found at www.sussex.ac.uk/study/masters/apply/admissions-policies. The University has a separate complaints process when you're a student here: www.sussex.ac.uk/ogs/complaintsappeals.

Further Information

To find out more about the University of Sussex please see: www.sussex.ac.uk. More information about your course can be viewed at: www.sussex.ac.uk/study/masters. If you have any questions please contact us (T: +44 (0)1273 877773; E: pg.applicants@sussex.ac.uk).

Yours sincerely

Marianne Boyer
