To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this recommendation letter for Badr Alodhaib. He is a student in the College of Science in Qassim University. I know Badr Alodhaib as a teacher and as a member of the chemistry department. Badr Alodhaib took electrochemistry and nuclear chemistry from me and earned superior grades in those classes. Based on Badr Alodhaib's grades and attendance, I'd rate Badr Alodhaib's academic performance in my class as superior. He demonstrated considerable interest for different techniques and showed qualities of an excellent student like intellectual curiosity, creativity, and love of learning. In summary, I recommend Badr Alodhaib for research and development positions.

Sincerely,

Sabri Messaoudi, Ph.D.
