

To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing this letter to you on behalf of Miss. Amani Balahmar to recommend her for the master's program in Accounting and Finance at your Business school. I understand that your school is one of the top-rated business schools in the United Kingdom and I believe with all my heart that Miss. Amani deserves a place in it.

During my time as a lecturer at the Department of Finance at Imam Abdul Rahman Bin Faisal University "formerly known as University of Dammam", I have had the pleasure of teaching Miss. Amani. She came across as a strong headed, dedicated, intelligent and hardworking student who had a natural knack for the field of accounting and put her best at whatever she does. Her passion for the field and her zest for pursuing a master's degree in Accounting and Finance made her a perfect choice for this course.

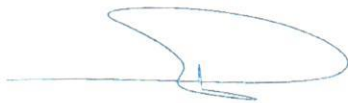

I offer my full and complete support to Miss. Amani Balahmar as it is clear to me that her devotion and passion will continue to thrive as her journey continues.

I strongly recommend her and am sure that if given the chance, she can be an indispensable asset at your university.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Best regards,
