

In the gap from now to January .

I think I'm going to work on my computer skills and try to improve my skills and be prepared to study in your great university .

I will learn about my major and improve my skills in it and know what I should focus on or what I shouldn't

To know what I'm ahead of and be good at my major and have good grades in college .