Please advise ASAP if any of the above information is incorrect

- We will send a Letter of Acceptance (LoA) for all course enrolments
- Proof of Travel & Medical Insurance is obligatory at all Kaplan International Schools in the US and Canada. If you arrive without this document you cannot begin classes until an insurance policy has been purchased. We also highly recommend this insurance policy covers their personal belongings during your stay
- You should send your flight details to the Kaplan International Languages office clearly indicating if you require a transfer. Transfers are available on Saturday and Sunday ONLY, surcharges for midweek transfers may apply
- Accommodation is available from Saturday or Sunday to Saturday. Extra night charges will apply for stays outside of this
- Flight details and visa confirmation (if applicable) must be submitted 15 days before the services start date listed on your booking confirmation to ensure housing placement. If this information is not submitted on time, please check with your Kaplan representative for updated housing availability. If preferred housing is not available, alternative dates or accommodation options may be offered and additional fees may apply
- If you have applied for campus schools in the United States, you must complete and email the Health Form directly to the school prior to your arrival
- Parents of applicants under the age of 18 (19 if attending our Vancouver location) must complete and return the signed Authorisation for Minors Form and the Emergency Medical Treatment Form prior to the student's arrival. The forms will be sent to you as soon as the booking is made
- You should send all changes or cancellations to the Kaplan International offices as soon as possible
- K+ post departure access subscriptions are nonrefundable once you have started your English course
- Classes may be scheduled for mornings and/or afternoons, depending upon the course location and date
- You can take a one-week holiday after every 10 weeks of continuous studies (min attendance 80%). Holiday requests or any other changes post arrival are subject to a Change Fee payment as per KI Languages Terms and Conditions
- Fixed length/date specific KI Languages programs do not qualify for vacation breaks as the curriculum either does not support breaks or already has breaks built into the program
