To Whom It May Concern

I am very pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Ali Ibrahim Mohammed Abu Dawshah. He has been one of my students during the course “Hydraulic Machines and Fluid Power System, EngM426”. He is a careful and creative thinker with an eye for details and a devotion to logic. He was the terrific ability to draw on his own experience and observations to develop thoughtful opinions on a variety of issues.

Mr. Abu Dawshah is an extremely personable young man who seems equally comfortable with his colleagues and faculty members.

I enthusiastically recommend him as an ideal candidate for postgraduate studying or working in the field of mechanical engineering.

Sincerely,

The signature is written in a cursive, blue ink style, appearing to read 'Abagabir'.
