

To whom it may concern,

It is my great pleasure to recommend Yousef Al-Ghamdi to be part of your institution. My name is Channing Jooste, Al-Manhal's Secondary English teacher and coordinator, and I have had the pleasure of teaching Yousef for the past five years.

Throughout his schooling journey, Yousef has consistently transcended in academia, as well as many dimensions that are not usually assessed by school curricula. Yousef portrays the characteristics of an exceptional leader by tutoring his classmates in mathematics and languages. This was extremely prevalent and relevant during Covid-19, when he took the initiative of tutoring his classmates on Zoom, in order to help them comprehend the more complex skills.

Teachers, leaders, and students have a high regard for Yousef. He is credible, dependable, loyal, and honest in all his dealings.

This is indicative of his character and caring nature for humanity, in that he makes time to assist his peers. Yousef undeniably possesses both intellectual and moral gravitas. He has a great sense of humor, and it is an absolute pleasure to teach him.

In addition to being a distinguished student, Yousef is a general all-rounder and multi-talented student. He shows remarkable dedication to his extracurricular activities. Yousef is an enthusiastic and avid reader. He spends his free time reading and writing.

Yousef possesses an intrinsic desire and curiosity to learn more than what the school has to offer – this illustrates one of his defining features.

If he was given the opportunity to be part of your distinguished institution, he would leave no stone unturned in making the most of every opportunity presented to him in order to make a difference in the lives of others.
